

Name _____ Date _____

Ask a Librarian

You want to help an endangered animal. There are many animals to choose from. Which animal will you choose?

You can ask a librarian to help you.

First, you need to know which animals are endangered. Write a question to ask the librarian.

The librarian knows all the places to search. She may look in an encyclopedia or a fact book. She may go to a Web site on the computer.

Name _____ Date _____

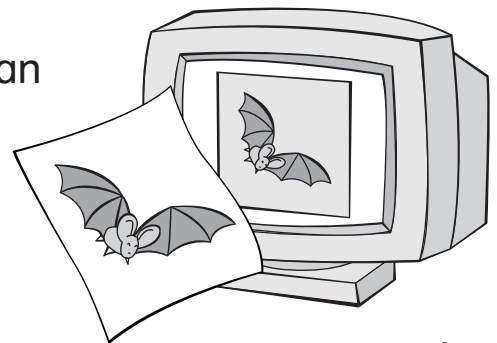

You learn which animals are endangered. You choose bats as your project. You want to take home a book about bats. Write a question to ask the librarian.

The library also has magazines. You want a magazine with facts about bats. Write a question to ask the librarian.

You also want a photo of a bat. The librarian can take you into cyberspace. You can pick the photo you like best. Then it can be printed for you. Write your question to ask the librarian.

Be CyberSmart![®]

Cyberspace is not always the best place to find what you need. Sometimes a book is easier to read.